Lunæ, 7° Die Martii, 1791.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of Sir John Honywood, Baronet, and John Curtis, Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Borough of Steyning in the County of Sussex, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petition did in Part depend upon the Right of Election; and that thereupon the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the Petitioners Sir John Honywood and John Curtis, Esquire, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Petitioners state the Right "of Election to be in the Inhabitants of ancient "Houses and Houses built on the Scites of ancient "Houses within the Borough of Steyning, being "Housholders paying Scot and Lot, and not re- "ceiving Alms."—That the Counsel for the Sitting Members James Martin Lloyd and Henry Howard, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state the "Right of Election to be in the Constable and "Householders, Inhabitants within the Borough of "Steyning, paying Scot and Lot, and not receiving "Alms."—That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said Sitting Members, the said Select Committee have determined, "That the "Right of Election, as set forth in the said State- "ment, is not the Right of Election for the Borough "of Steyning in the County of Sussex." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Petitioners the said Committee have determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the "said Statement, is the Right of Election for the "Borough of Steyning." I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the "further Regulation of the Trials of Controverted "Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in "Parliament." Given under my Hand the Seventh Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Lunæ, 7° Die Martii, 1791.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of the Honourable Richard Edgcumbe, commonly called Lord Valletort, and Philip Rashleigh, and also of the Petition of the Right Honourable Molyneux Lord Shuldham and Sir Ralph Payne, Knight of the Bath, and also of the Petition of John Rashleigh, Richard Hennah, Samuel Nicolls, Nevel Norway, and Benjamin Bloomfield, of the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, being Persons who had a Right to vote at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, on Behalf of themselves and others who were at the said Election, lawful Electors for the said Borough, severally complaining of an undue Election and Double Return for the said Borough of Fowey, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, that it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of chusing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer, who was to make Return of such Election; and that thereupon the said Select Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of chusing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer for the said Borough, for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the Petitioners, Lord Shuldham and Sir Ralph Payne, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Portreeve "is the Returning Officer at Elections to serve in "Parliament for the Borough of Fowey. The "Portreeve for the said Borough is chosen or pre- "sented by the Homage at the Court holden for the "said Manor of Fowey, usually soon after Michael- "mas, by the Steward or the Deputy of the "Prince of Wales, Lord of the said Borough and "Manor, in Right of His Dutchy of Cornwall." That the Counsel for the Petitioners Lord Valletort and Philip Rashleigh, Esquire, and also for the Petitioners John Rashleigh, Richard Hennah, Samuel Nicolls, Nevel Norway and Benjamin Bloomfield, of the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, on Behalf of themselves and others who were at the last Election, lawful Electors for the said Borough, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The "Persons entitled to elect the Portreeve of the Bo- "rough of Fowey are those who are capable of "Holding that Office; that is, such Prince's Te- "nants only as have been duly admitted on the "Court Rolls of the Manor of the said Borough, "and have done their Fealty, and such Persons "only are duly admitted whose Lands were anciently "and continue to be held immediately of the Duke "of Cornwall, as Parcel of his said Manor of the "said Borough, and whose Titles to those Lands "have been presented at a Court Baron, by a Sworn "Homage or Jury of the Freeholders of the "said Borough." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of chusing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer for the said Borough, have determined, "That the Portreeve of the Borough of Fowey is "the Returning Officer for the said Borough, and "that it is necessary that such Returning Officer "should be chosen or presented by a Homage or "Jury of Prince's Tenants, duly admitted on the "Court Rolls of the Manor of the said Borough, "and that Prince's Tenants admitted by the Steward "or Deputy Steward, at a Court holden in the said "Manor, are duly admitted, and that the Present- "ment of the Homage is not necessary to such Ad- "mission." That the said Select Committee had also determined, "That Thomas Mein was the pro- "per Returning Officer at the late Election for "Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of "Fowey." I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the further Regu- "lation of the Trials of Controverted Elections or "Returns of Members to serve in Parliament." Given under my Hand the Seventh Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one.

Jonathan Bramſton,
Clerk of the General Meetings.

Uppingham, March 2, 1791.

WHereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that on the 10th of December last, as James Cammell, Second Mate of the Role Revenue Cuttter was cruizing between Christ-Church and Hurst, in a Boat belonging to the said Cutter, he fell in with a large Smuggling Lugger near Becken Bury, and which was then landing her Cargo: That on his being discovered by the Crew of the said Lugger, they ordered him to come on Board, which the Officer refused, and immediately the Lugger got under Sail, chased the Custom-House Boat, and feloniously fired several Shot at her: That the following Night about Eight o'Clock, a Boat belonging to the Swan Revenue Cutter, in the Service of the Customs, commanded by Joseph Goodridge, an Officer of this Revenue, fell in with the said Lugger near Christ Church, which he immediately chased, and came up with, when the Crew of the Lugger ordered the Officer and his Men on Board, when they forced below, and kept a Guard over them, whilst the Lugger proceeded to the Westward, and at Two o'Clock next Morning landed her Goods at Bourn Bottom, consisting of above 1000 Casks of Foreign Spirituous Liquors, some Tea and Tobacco. They then ordered the Officer and his Boat's Crew into their Boat, and dismissed them, after having plundered the Boat of Fire Arms and some of her Materials.

The above Lugger is about 160 Tons Burthen, mounting Fourteen or Sixteen Guns, Nine and Eighteen Pounders, and is commanded by a Man about Thirty Years of Age, and full Six Feet high. The Crew in general were supposed to be Irish, and between 60 and 70 in Number One of the Crew, a Man belonging to Hastings, in the County of Kent, is well known to the Officers.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Piracy, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders (except the Commander of the said Lugger) who shall discover his Accomplices, so that Two or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of either of the said Offences.

GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any Two or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

TONTINE. 1789.

INTEREST of One Year and a Quarter, after the Rate of 4 per Cent. per Annum, due 10th of October, 1790, will be paid to the Contributors on Friday the 11th Day of March, 1791, at Lord Viscount Bayham's Office in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, from Ten to One.

CHARLES TOWNSHEND.
